

SATURDAY 25 JULY 2015

FOUR ILLUSTRATED TALKS ON LOUGH CARRA AT THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF COUNTRY, TURLOUGH NEAR CASTLEBAR.

See details below.

BOOKING REQUIRED THROUGH THE NATIONAL MUSEUM :

educationtph@museum.ie

Tel: 094 9031751

museum
National Museum of Ireland
Ard-Mhúsaem na hÉireann

Country Life

Turlough Park
Castlebar
Co Mayo

| July (continued)                 |                     |  |                                |
|----------------------------------|---------------------|--|--------------------------------|
| Sun 19th2-3pm                | Talk                | Talk: Ladies of the GentryWhere there's a Will... Join Olivia Martin for some interesting insights into the lives of mothers and mistresses, spinsters and widows as revealed through a study of the wills of lesser gentry in East Mayo between 1760 and 1880. Louisa Moore: A Life in Letters Fiona White, GMIT presents the life of Louisa Moore of Moore Hall. A strong-minded, dictatorial woman of great business capacity who combined the role of wife and mother with her role as manager of the estate with great enthusiasm. Booking required.   | Adults                         |
| Wed 22nd2-4pm                | Drop-inActivity | On Sight Art Trail: Tour and DocumentaryJoin Gaynor Seville, Public Arts Co-ordinator, Mayo Co.Co. for a tour of the On Sight Art Trail, followed by a documentary on the artworks by artist Mary Henning. On Sight is a collaboration between the National Museum, Mayo County Council Arts Office and Mayo Arts Squad and a number of independent artists. For more info. See www.museum.ie.Booking required.   | Adults &children7yrs+  |
| Thu 23rd11:30am -12:30pm | Drop-inActivity | Kids Museum: Young &amp; Old Come Out to PlayJoin the education team to enjoy some of the games played in the past, like 5 slates and skittles. Learn how and where the games were played and have a go for yourself. No booking required.   | Family                         |
| Sat 25th11am -3:30pm     | Talk                | A Day of Illustrated Talks on Lough CarraFor the past 15 years, Chris &amp; Lynda Huxley have studied and photographed Co. Mayo's unique marl lake. Their book 'Lough Carra' covers everything from archaeology &amp; art to angling &amp; ecology; illustrated with Lynda's photographs &amp; paintings by Deirdre Walsh. Talks by:Chris Huxley on Lough Carra's wildlifeCillian Roden on Lough Carra's aquatic ecologyDeirdre Walsh on capturing the ever-changing light of Lough Carra's landscapeFiona White on Moore Hall &amp; the MooresYvonne McDermott on Burrenscarra Friary. For more information visit www.loughcarra.org.Booking required. | Adults &children14yrs+ |
| Sat 25th                         | Demonstration       | Connaught Textile Crafters: Decorative Paper   | Adults &                       |

Migrant Women: Shared Experiences...NEW EXHIBITION!

Louisa Moore of Moore Hall. Talk on Sunday 19th July.

