

LOCATION OF LOUGH CARRA

Lough Carra is situated in County Mayo, Republic of Ireland, as the most northerly part of the Great Western Lakes system of Loughs Corrib, Mask and Carra. It is about 15 km south of the County Town of Castlebar, about 15 km west of Claremorris and about 5 km north of Ballinrobe. The Irish Grid reference for the notional centre of the lough is M 1872.

Public access points are at Moorehall in the northeastern corner, Brownstown on the eastern shore and Castleburke in the northwestern corner. These points can be reached via small country roads and lanes from the N84 road that runs along the western side of the lough.

MAP OF LOUGH CARRA SHOWING LOCATION OF ACCESS POINTS AND MAJOR FEATURES

