

Lough Cora Trout Anglers Association

13/4/73

A Meeting of the above Association was held in ~~the~~ Imperial Hotel, Castlebar on Thursday night the 16th November 1972. As well as the Chairman (Mr. J. J. McGowan) the following were also present: - Messrs J. O'Connor, C. Hanley, Bro. Jim, Tony Maguire, Tony Baynes, T. Ketterick, L. Scott, E. McDonnell, M. Corcoran for Hanrook, & the Sec. The Minutes of the previous meeting were read & adopted.

Arising from letters on lake pollution the meeting decided to follow up the matter to bring home to those in authority the anxiety of the Association.

The question of the Annual Social was discussed & the Chairman said that he was afraid that if we neglected any of our ~~own~~ usual activities such as our Social the danger was there that the Association would fall apart little by little. He suggested however that we postpone the Social until March when ^{members} ~~everybody~~ would be organising fishing gear etc for the May fly season.

This suggestion was agreed to. Mr. T. Ketterick agreed to see Mrs Jennings re date & possible menu - prices with or without drink & when all arrangements were finalised it was suggested that an Advertisement be inserted in the "Mayo Post".

Mr. C. Hanley raised the question of the bills resulting from the Moorhall Project & the Chairman said that ~~at~~ all the bills were not to hand as yet. Mr. Kavanagh, Boid. Fentie was expected to come & inspect the work & with the subsequent arrival of the Cheque all bills would be cleared before next Meeting. Mr. Tony Maguire said that he was ^{present} when Mr. J. Reilly asked Mr. Brennan re Mrs Connors project.

The Minutes of the previous meeting were read & adopted.

Arising from letters on lake pollution the meeting decided to follow up the matter to bring home to those in authority the anxiety of the Association.

The question of the Annual Social was discussed & the Chairman said that he was afraid that if we neglected any of our ~~own~~ usual activities such as our Social the danger was there that the Association would fall apart little by little. He suggested however that we postpone the Social until March when ^{members} ~~everybody~~ would be organising fishing gear etc for the Mayfly season.

This suggestion was agreed to. Mr T. Ketterick agreed to see Mrs Jennings re date & possible menu - prices with or without drink & when all arrangements were finalised it was suggested that an Advertisement be inserted in the "Mayo Post".

Mr. C. Hanley raised the question of the bills resulting from the Moorhall Project & the Chairman said that ~~at~~ all the bills were not to hand as yet. Mr. Kavanagh Bird Fentie was expected to come & inspect the work & with the subsequent arrival of the cheque all bills would be cleared before next Meeting. Mr. Tony Maguire said that he was ^{present} when

Mr. Jimmy Reilly asked Mr. Brennan re Mrs Connor's project.

This concluded the business of the Meeting

Signed :-  ; (Chairman)

18/4/73 Date