

Lough Corra Trout Anglers Association

18/4/73

At a Meeting of the above Association held in the Imperial Hotel Castlebar on Wednesday night, April 18th 1973 Mr. J. J. Mc Gowan was in the Chair & the following members were also present - Messrs. J. J. O'Connor, Joe Rowntree, Tony Maguire, E. McDonnell, Dr. Jim Jim O'Reilly, Noel McGrath, Larry Scott, Padhraic Kelly, Rony de Barr (G.F.T.) & the Secretary.

The Minutes of the previous Meeting were read & duly signed by the Chairman.

The principle business before the Meeting was the May Trout Competition. It was decided to hold the Competition on Sunday May 20th under the usual Competition Rules. It was thought advisable to have a notice relating to the Competition posted on the gate at the Moonhall Bathing area & as it was also agreed to hold the Annual Social on the night of the Competition in the Imperial Hotel it was thought advisable to include this information also on the said notice. The fees agreed or were £1 for Competition & £1 (per head) for the Social.

The question of the right of individual members to hold on to last year's berths at Moonhall was introduced & it was felt that if members so desired there would be no objection, but, if a member saw a berth being left vacant which was ^{more} desirable to him he could after consultation with the officers switch his boat to the more preferable spot. The Chairman said that Mr. Tony Maguire had agreed to look after the Bathing area & keep it in good shape & that as caretaker he was an ideal man for the job. An honorarium would have to be decided upon to compensate him for this work. During the week he would be busy putting in the bathing areas on the North side & by the end of 18/4/73

At a Meeting of the above Association held in the Imperial Hotel Castlebar on Wednesday night, April 18th 1973 Mr. J. J. Mc Gowan was in the Chair & the following members were also present - Messrs. J. J. O'Connor, Joe Rowntree, Tony Maguire, E. McDonnell, Dr. Jim, Jim O'Reilly, Noel Mc Greal, Larry Scott, Padhraic Kelly, Rory de Barra (J. F. T.) & the Secretary.

The Minutes of the previous Meeting were read & duly signed by the Chairman.

The principle business before the Meeting was the May Trout Competition. It was decided to hold the Competition on Sunday May 20th under the usual Competition Rules. It was thought advisable to have a notice relating to the Competition posted on the gate at the Moonhall Bathing area & as it was also agreed to hold the Annual Social on the night of the Competition in the Imperial Hotel it was thought advisable to include this information also on the said notice. The fees agreed or were £1 (per head) for Competition & £1 (per head) for the Social.

The question of the right of individual members to hold on to last year's berths at Moonhall was introduced & it was felt that if members so desired there would be no objection, but, if a member saw a berth being left vacant which was ^{more} desirable to him he could after consultation with the officers switch his boat to the more preferred spot. The Chairman said that Mr. Tony Maguire had agreed to look after the Bathing area & keep it in good shape & as caretaker he was an ideal man for the job.

An honorarium would have to be decided upon to compensate him for this work. During the week he would be busy putting in the bathing rings on the North side & by then ample room should be available for everybody wishing to avail of the enclosed area.

As a sequel to the meeting held in Ballinrobe at which

The Musk, Corrib & Carron Fishing Organisations were represented + from which an agreed report on the hazards to fishing in these areas if the Dept. of Public Works went ahead with the Drainage Scheme envisaged in the near future, Mr. Roy De Barra handed in this joint statement which was read by the Sec. Mr. Joe Rowntree, who at short notice represented the Lough Corrib Anglers at a further meeting on this point held in Athlone + attended by Anglers from all over Ireland gave a very fine full report of what transpired at that meeting. The members expressed their appreciation to both Mr. DuBarry + Mr. Rowntree for a job well - done.

It was decided that further meetings between the Ballinrobe + Castlebar groups should be held regularly + that all members in both areas would be kept informed of what was happening or contemplated.

It was proposed by Mr. L. Scott + seconded by Mr. Tony Maguire that we affiliate with the Trout Angler Federation of Ireland. It was understood the Aff. Fee was £2.

The Chairman said he felt that inter-Club Competitions would be a worthwhile idea + asked the members to think the matter over before the next meeting.

The usual Annual Contribution from Mrs. Jennings for £50 was still outstanding + Mr. Jimmy Reilly agreed to look into the matter.

The Chairman said he felt strongly about getting Juveniles to join the Club which was rapidly becoming "a Club of old men" + he suggested once again a special Competition of the 12 - 16 yr bracket. Older members should take these juveniles out in their boats + teach them to fish.

Bringing the meeting to a close the Chairman thanked all those who came to the meeting + paid tribute to Messrs DuBarry + Rowntree for all the hard work they put into their individual Reports.

Both Cork & Carra Fishing Organisations were represented + from which an agreed report on the hazards to fishing in these areas if the Dept. of Public Works went ahead with the Drainage Scheme imagined in the near future, Mr. Roy De Barra handed in this joint statement which was read by the Sec. Mr. Joe Rowntree, who at short notice represented the Lough Carra Anglers at a further meeting on this point held in Athlone + attended by Anglers from all over Ireland gave a very fine full report of what transpired at that meeting. The members expressed their appreciation to both Mr. DuBarry + Mr. Rowntree for a job well - done.

It was decided that further meetings between the Ballinrobe + Castlebar groups should be held regularly + that all members in both areas would be kept informed of what was happening or ~~and~~ contemplated.

It was proposed by Mr. L. Scott + seconded by Mr. Tony Maguire that we affiliate with the Trout Angler Federation of Ireland. It was understood the Aff. fee was £2.

The Chairman said he felt that inter - Club Competitions would be a worthwhile idea + asked the members to think the matter over before the next meeting.

The usual Annual Contribution from Mrs. Jennings for £50 was still outstanding + Mr. Jimmy Dally agreed to look into the matter. The Chairman said he felt strongly about getting Juveniles to join the Club which was rapidly becoming "a Club of old men" + he suggested once again a special Competition of the 12 - 16 yr bracket. Older members should take these juveniles out in their boats + teach them to fish.

Bringing the meeting to a close the Chairman thanked all those who came to the meeting + paid tribute to Messrs. DuBarry + Rowntree for all the hard work they put into their individual Reports.

Signed : J. Freeman (Chairman)
29/8/73. (Date)